Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

I feel that all fees, taxes, or whatever should be based on actual usage. Those who can afford to use a lot can afford to pay more in fees, taxes or whatever. Those who cannot afford to use a lot cannot afford to pay extra in fees, taxes, or whatever.

Under the flat fee or numbers-based plan you are considering, people like me who make few long distance calls would pay the same as people or businesses that make many calls. I believe it would be unfair to charge low-volume customers the same fees as high-volume customers.

I urge you to keep the USF fair, and adopt a usage only based plan. Thank you.
